Delhi to Cochin (Flight)

Our luxury coaches would wait for you at a pre-decided pick-up point for your private transfer to the Airport. Reach Cochin, the land of coconuts, countless cultures, and a rich past. Upon arrival, you will be taken to see Fort Cochin. A seaside wonder with the perfect blend of British colonial architecture from the past and chic cafes of the present. Head to Brunton Boatyard -- a luxury hotel built with an eclectic blend of English, Portuguese and Dutch influences. Settle in and get refreshed before you head out to the History restaurant for a delicious coastal meal (Kerala's special spread).After your meal, experience the destination on foot and explore the fish markets nearby along, and see how the Chinese fishing nets work. Head back to the hotel for some relaxation and evening tea. After your cup of tea, head out on a peaceful cruise to bask in the beauty of the seven different islands of Cochin and watch the sunset across the horizon. End your night on a special note with a delicious spread of the welcome dinner arranged for you along with some folk music.
