Delhi - Varanasi (Flight)

Reach airport on time to Board flight from Delhi (6E 2153 : 0755 / 0910) to Varanasi , the city of Shiva, on the bank of the sacred Ganges is one of the holiest places in India. Hindu Pilgrims come to bath in the waters of the Ganges, a ritual that washes away all sins. The city is an auspicious place to die, since expiring here offers Moksha liberation from the cycle of birth and death. It's a magical city where the most intimate rituals of life and death take place in public on the city's famous. Upon arrival check into hotel and rest of the time is free at leisure to enjoy the Hotels facilities (or) rejuvenate the body through Ayurvedic massage (on direct payment basis). In the Evening witness the Ganga Aarti at Dasaswamedh Ghat which is a show stopper. It is on the 'must do' list of every tourist. It starts soon after sundown and goes on for an hour and half, but visitors begin streaming in as early as 5 PM. The preparation in the lead up to the Aarti sets the tone for the evening ahead. It all begins with young priests organizing their prayer instruments on their respective platforms – eight odd of them. The group of young priests begins proceedings in a well orchestrated manner, synchronizing their movement with lamps in hand, to the rhythmic chants of hymns and beat of cymbals. Return back to Hotel for overnight stay.
